

Rob Hes (Bedrock, BlaBla)

Meet Rob Hes, one of the brightest new stars on the techno horizon. His sound can be described as raw, energetic but very musical at the same time. He is one of those artists where you immediately recognise his work as being his, without him repeating a few signature tricks over and over again.

Rob has drawn the attention of the global techno scene big time lately, but newcomer might not be the best way to describe this multi talent. With more than 10 years of studio experience and countless releases under different aliases under his belt, this is definitely one of those raw diamonds that has remained hidden for far too long. But don't worry, with recent releases on Gabriel Ananda's basmati imprint, John Digweeds' infamous Bedrock label and an album coming up on the industry leader by the name of Toolroom, Rob won't be kept hidden for that long anymore. So make sure to keep an eye and ear out for those bangers like only Rob Hes can make them!
